Nifty100 ESG Sector Leader Index in addition to excluding companies based on questionable business and severe controversy, also evaluates how effectively the company is managing its ESG risk compared to its global sub-industry practices to which it belongs. Those companies who fail to match global sub-industry level are also excluded from the index.

Source: NSE